HOLLENBERG PONY EXPRESS STATION STATE HISTORIC SITE TO HOST ANNUAL CHRISTMAS OPEN HOUSE

HANOVER, KS— One of Santa's first scheduled visits to Washington County will be at the Hollenberg Pony Express Station State Historic Site near Hanover on Saturday, December 6. Plans are in full swing for the annual old-fashioned Christmas open house at the station, a free event. The kerosene lamps are getting cleaned and filled, wood has been cut for the stove, and popcorn is being strung for the tree trimming (and we'll pop some popcorn fresh for visitors that night!).

Doors will open to the public at 6 p.m. with Santa scheduled to arrive about 7 p.m. with goodies for the children. Refreshments will also be served by volunteers and the friends group. Please join us in singing of Christmas songs and have a foot-stomping good time.

The Hollenberg Pony Express Station State Historic Site is one of sixteen historic sites operated by the Kansas Historical Society.
