

Worksheet 3

Safari Story

The story of two Kansas adventurers with cameras, “Flying Photo Safari,” appears on pages 10 and 11 in the magazine. Read the article and answer the questions below.

WHO is this article about? _____ Martin and Osa Johnson _____

WHY were these people well known? They wrote books and made movies that were popular.

WHERE did they go on their most famous trip? Africa

WHEN did they go? 1933-1934

WHAT was one problem they faced? possible answers: where they were going to sleep at night on safari, landing their planes on water, lions trying to jump inside the plane

HOW did they solve the problem possible answers: couches and chairs in one plane became bunks, each plane wing had floats underneath, Osa threw flour at the lions to scare them away

Plane Jobs

Articles on page 9, “Taking Off to Work,” and page 15, “Thrill Seekers,” tell about some workers who use planes. Complete the chart below to show what they use planes to do.

Workers:	Test Pilots	Flying Farmers	Flying Doctors
What do they use planes for?	1. perform flying experiments 2. help collect information about planes 3. help make planes safer and faster	possible answers: find cattle on large ranches; check fields for soil erosion; spray fields with pesticides; travel to distant parts stores	1. treat patients in remote areas 2. emergency care for towns without a doctor 3. carry patients to hospitals

