

Compare and Contrast

Meriwether Lewis and William Clark were the leaders of the Corps of Discovery. Although they worked together and were good friends, Lewis and Clark were still unique individuals. In the exercise below, list some of the ways these two men were alike and how they were different.

Meriwether Lewis

William Clark

How were they alike?

They were both in the army.

How were they different?

- Jefferson's personal secretary.
- Was shot on the trip.
- Had a dog.
- Cartographer of the expedition.
- Lead boatman.
- Owned a slave.

