

Moccasin

Object Card

Plains Indian men and women wore moccasins. They used tough buffalo rawhide for the soles and soft tanned hide for the tops. Women made most of the moccasins and other clothing. They often decorated the tops of the moccasins with porcupine quills or beads.

