

Parfleche

Object Card

A parfleche is a container. Most parfleches were much larger than this one. In the village the parfleche stored things like dried buffalo meat. Plains Indians packed tools, food, or clothing in them when they traveled. A parfleche is made from buffalo rawhide, a tough hard hide that was cleaned but not tanned.

