

Spoon

Object Card

A buffalo horn could be turned into a spoon by heating, shaping, and polishing it. It took the Plains Indians about an hour to make one spoon. People carried their spoon with them when they traveled. When in the village they hung their spoon up by the leather thong when not using it.

