As Kansans, we love our State—the people and the history. We take pride in the passion of the original settlers who founded the State for a cause. When you join the Kansas Historical Foundation, you support our unique history. Your membership in the Kansas State Historical Society, Inc., also known as the Kansas Historical Foundation, supports the Kansas Historical Society.

Members of the Foundation receive benefits of membership to include:

- Free admission to state-owned historic sites;
- Quarterly issues of Kansas History: A Journal of the Central Plains;
- Discounts on merchandise at our stores and online at store.kshs.org;
- Reciprocal benefits at more than 200 historical institutions throughout the U.S. through Time Travelers network; and
- Invitations to events and receipt of publications about the Society and the Foundation.

Members are entitled to participate in Foundation governance and attend our annual meeting held the first Friday in November.
