The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, Kansas State Historical Society, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

Henry Worrall's depiction of a Santa Fe trail scene where the seemingly endless Kansas prairie and the vast sky merge in the distance. Worrall was a 19th century Topeka painter and illustrator.
