The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, KANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

In the Strawberry Hill area of Kansas City, Kan., the cultural traditions from the Croatian sections of Yugoslavia have been preserved. This painting is entitled "Musical Heritage of Strawberry Hill," by Marijana Grisnik. The painting might be termed a self-portrait of its creator. Marijana is pictured painting in the foreground, surrounded by the intertwined cultures of Strawberry Hill and Yugoslavia.
