Eisenhower as Supreme Allied Commander, 1944.

Cover and back cover: Greeted in 1945 as America's national hero, Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected President of the United States in 1952. On the cover is a portrait photograph of Eisenhower as President; on the back cover is a scene from Ike's whistle-stop victory tour following the end of World War II in Europe—the scene, repeated all along Ike's route, was photographed in Topeka, Kansas, in June 1945. This issue of Kansas History recognizes the Eisenhower Centennial celebration of 1990 with a series of articles devoted to the man who called Abilene, Kansas, his hometown.
Eisenhower Was a Democrat
by Robert H. Ferrell

Ike and “The Great Truck Train”—1919
by John F. Wickman

An Unlikely Partnership and Service: Dwight Eisenhower, Mark Clark, and the Philippines
by Daniel D. Holt

The Beginnings of Ambivalence: Dwight D. Eisenhower and the Federal Aid to Education Issue, 1949-1953
by James Duram

Dwight D. Eisenhower and Civil Rights: Reflections on a Portrait in Caution
by Robert F. Burk

Do We “Like Ike”?: Historians and the Eisenhower Presidency
by William Howard Moore

Book Reviews

Book Notes

Kansas Bookshelf