A farmer's hired man in Sheridan County, Kansas, 1939.

Cover and Back Cover: From the farm life depicted in Thomas Hart Benton's Threshing Wheat (cover) to change and protests brought on by hard times (back cover); and from a Kansan famous for his career on the silver screen to a once well-known politician—Kansas has seen its people endure the worst and offer the best during the first decades of the twentieth century.
Harvesting in Kansas During the Early Decades of This Century: A Reminiscence
by Solomon L. Loewen

Within the Shadows of Pickfair: An Interview With Charles "Buddy" Rogers edited by Ronald L. Davis

The Forgotten Candidate: Omar B. Ketchum and the Senate Race of 1936
by Shane N. Galentine

From Self-Help to Federal Aid: Unemployment and Relief in Kansas, 1929-1932
by Peter Pearson

Book Reviews

Book Notes