Celebrate Kansas

Our thoughts are with our members during these unprecedented times. We hope you and your family are safe and well. While we are currently closed to the public, we are working remotely to carry on many of our basic operations.

Efforts continue toward the Honor · Educate · Inspire Campaign for New Exhibits at the Kansas Museum of History. We will have more announcements to come about this exciting project!

The Museum Store Online continues to offer a range of Kansas books and gifts. There may be some delays in shipping orders. Sales help support the programs of the Kansas Historical Society. store.kshs.org

To keep you updated during these days of rapid change, we invite you to subscribe to the Kansas Historical Society eNews, if you have not already. We send monthly updates on timely issues. kshs.org/11517
1 Bird’s Eye View
Take a virtual tour with these 45 images stunning perspectives. Panoramic maps were created in the late 19th century to build pride and inspire growth. kansasmemory.org/category/12639

2 Quarantine Stories
We’re partnering with Kansas Public Radio as they collect stories of life during the pandemic. Whether you’re sheltering at home or an essential worker, we will preserve your memories of Kansas life in these challenging times. kansaspublicradio.org

3 Upward to Equality
Explore fascinating stories in the catalog from our upcoming special exhibit, Upward to Equality: Kansas Women Fight to Vote, at the Kansas Museum of History. You’ll also find a series of trading cards in PDF. kshs.org/20250