Dinsmoor, Silas, 1766-1847.
The Silas Dinsmoor papers, 1794-1853.
4 microfilm reels; 35 mm.

Indian agent, surveyor, farmer; of Choctaw Trading House (Miss.Territory; present St. Stephens, Ala.); Mobile, Ala.; Boone County, Ky.

Correspondence and business papers. Early letters were written to Mary Gordon, who would become his wife, during their courtship and early marriage. Other correspondence consists of letters to family members and instructions & letters from Washington, D.C., but mostly letters to Mary from the Choctaw Trading House (Miss. Territory; present St. Stephens, Ala.) and other places where his service took him. There are also some letters from others to Mary and some official documents, primarily pertaining to land & surveys east of New Orleans, La.; interrogatories relating to the dismissal by George Davis, surveyor of lands south of Tennessee, of all deputy surveyors; and some accounts. Later letters are primarily to and from family members, though there is some correspondence relating to commercial transactions & business ventures and with other acquaintances. Correspondence after Silas's death in 1847 is that of his wife, Mary.

Microfilm. Topeka, Kan.: Kansas State Historical Society, 1951; lab no. 1716-1719.
