

Witcher Archeological District, Rozell vicinity, Pawnee County

This nomination includes two sites 14PA363 & 14PA411.

It was listed in the Register of Historic Kansas Places on April 23, 1976 and was sent to the Keeper of the National Register of Historic Places for their consideration. The nomination was returned to the Kansas SHPO with revision requests that included amending the boundaries and acreage to accurately reflect what is nominated and justifying the boundaries of the district.

In 1979 the SHPO decided to not continue to pursue National Register nomination. The district was considered eligible for the NRHP and remains listed in the state register.
