Additional Statement of Significance:

The original 20 acres, known as Bethany Square, were donated to the Episcopal Church by the Topeka Association. The last legislative act of the Territorial Legislature on February 2, 1861 was the passage, over Gov. Medary's veto, of a new act of incorporation for the "Episcopal Female Seminary of Topeka". In 1871 the name of the school was changed to "The College of the Sisters of Bethany".

It was from this Bethany Square that Grace Cathedral was given land by the Trustees of the College,
