Evidence Card 6

Family picking cotton in fields near Savannah, Georgia, circa 1867.
In 1880 a U.S. Senate select committee held a hearing to investigate the causes of the exodus. Ten African American men and one woman provided sworn affidavits of events they experienced while living in Louisiana.